

Ed Kimura*Biographical Information*

Ed Kimura is an electrical engineer and the chair of the Water Subcommittee for the San Diego Chapter of the Sierra Club. He has worked on various environmental issues including energy, air quality, and solid waste. He represented the Chapter on the City of San Diego's Repurified Water Review Committee and currently represents the Chapter on the City's Citizens Water Advisory Committee.